This is a very interesting and useful guide of Baseball Hall of Famers' autographs. However, I was expecting to receive a book of color photographs of the autographs (as shown in the "look inside" pages of the listing), but the book contains only black-and-white photos of the autographs. This disappointed me because I felt that I was misled to believe I would receive a more attractive book. The "look inside" pages should be corrected to show what the book actually contains--black-and-white photos.

This is a nice reference book for Hall Of Fame autographs, however.....After using the "look inside" feature to see what I would be getting for $39.95, I saw page after page of color samples, which to me justified the price. When my book arrived I was VERY disappointed to see NO COLOR at all?? My book looks like a black and white Xerox copy of the book shown for sale. The pictures shown on the "Look Inside" feature need to be updated.

A good supplemental reference guide for baseball H.O.F. autograph collectors. Limited as no evaluation of formation and many HOF examples not present. Like Mark Allen Baker's Baseball Autograph Handbook better!
