Customer Reviews

Most of us are familiar with jerk chicken from Jamaica, a uniquely spiced way to cook poultry. But I was less familiar with the salt cod and "bully beef" recipes. I am not sure I'd make these, but as a complete look at Jamaican cuisine, it was fascinating to see what Jamaican cooks do with the canned corn beef you see in the Spanish-Caribbean section of the grocery store. There are so many good chicken recipes in here that I'm not sure I'd ever even worry about the other chapters, but they make very good reading. Meanwhile, the jerk chicken kabobs look like they're going to become a staple for summer parties.

All the authentic foods that you enjoyed as a child, at your fingertips. If you want to learn how to cook authentic Jamaican foods that are delicious and nutritious, this is the book for you! Yummy recipes!

I could taste every meal through the pages. I wish there were some porridge recipes though. Nonetheless, this is delicious

I love this book, easy and great taste. I only wish I could also get it in actual book also.
